Why do we do what we do at Mass? How can we get more out of Mass? Why is it the bedrock of our faith? How can it truly transform us?

Eucharistic Adoration

"Eucharistic Adoration is an affirmation of our faith. Through this vigil of prayer, we give witness to our belief that God is truly dwelling with His people. In it's fullest essence, it is God and man reaching out for each other, at the same time"
- Pope Benedict XVI

All are invited to the Ministry Center Chapel this Friday following the 8am Mass for Exposition. Benediction at 11am.

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." - Matthew 22:37

Today's Readings

First Reading You shall not oppress an alien, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt (Exodus 22:20-26).

Psalm I love you, Lord, my strength (Psalm 18).

Second Reading You became imitators of the Lord, so that you became a model for all believers (1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10).

Gospel You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:34-40).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass (c) 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Love your neighbor. It sounds so simple. Yet it is not always easy to accomplish. Many things get in the way of taking this commandment to heart. Sometimes, it is things that get in the way, but more often, we get in the way. We tend to see things through our own perspective, rather than considering the other person's point of view. In our interactions with others, we often fail to truly listen, focusing instead on our next response or point to be made. We say we love our neighbor, right up to the point at which doing so requires some sacrifice of time, attention, or financial support, and then suddenly, a thousand reasons for keeping to ourselves emerge. Jesus knew this when he summed up the great commandments of loving God and neighbor. Notice what he said about this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
