

St. Catharine Parish RENEW program presents;

An Evening With

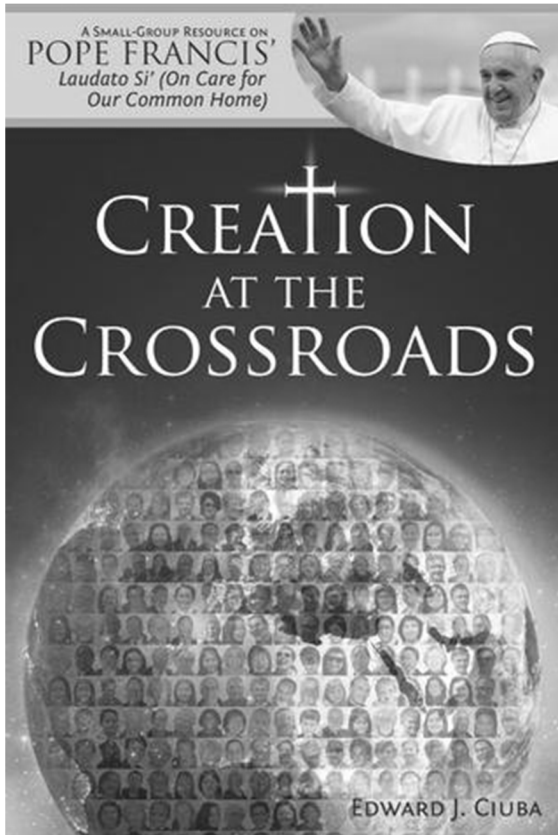

Fr. Edward Ciuba

Author of

“Creation at the Crossroads”

Fr Ciuba will discuss Pope Francis’ encyclical

“Laudato Si: Care of our Common Home”

Former professor of biblical studies at Immaculate conception Seminary and rector at Seton Hall University, Fr. Ciuba is deeply engaged in the Church’s teaching on the care of creation and the impact of environmental change on those who are poor and vulnerable.

He is a member of the St. Francis Eco-spirituality committee and a frequent speaker on Scripture, ecology, and spirituality.

Come learn about the most urgent social justice challenge of our times! ALL ARE INVITED!

Presentation to take place THURSDAY, March 9th in Community Hall.

Refreshments start at 7:00PM and program to begin at 7:30PM.

Invite your friends and family!
